

Student Code of Conduct

LMU students are expected to maintain high standards of private and public conduct both on- and off campus. The following enumerated sections constitute conduct that conflicts with the community standards of LMU. Engaging in such conduct and other generally prohibited behaviors, whether or not covered by specific regulation, shall subject a student to the Conduct Process and may result in disciplinary action.